DATE: 4/19/2016

SUBJECT: Submittal of a resolution commemorating the retirement of Supervising Deputy Probation Officer Heidi Harmon after twenty-nine years of service to the County of San Luis Obispo. All Districts.

RECOMMENDATION

Request the Board of Supervisors adopt the resolution commemorating the retirement of Supervising Deputy Probation Officer Heidi Harmon after twenty-nine years of service to the County of San Luis Obispo.

DISCUSSION

The Probation Department requests the Board of Supervisors adopt a resolution commemorating the retirement of Supervising Deputy Probation Officer Heidi Harmon and recognize her 29 years of service to the County.

Heidi started her probation career in Clark County, Nevada as a Probation Aide in 1985. She was hired as a Deputy Probation Officer in San Luis Obispo County in 1986. During her time in service in San Luis Obispo County, Heidi has worked in numerous assignments including Juvenile Hall, Community Work Service Training Project, Outreach, Juvenile Supervision, Adult Supervision, and Adult Investigations. In 2008, Heidi promoted to Supervising Deputy Probation Officer and since that time has held assignments supervising the Adult Investigations Unit, Treatment Courts Unit, and most recently the Placement Unit.

Heidi's contributions to the Department have been numerous and varied and she has shown a steadfast commitment to helping offenders change their behavior as well as moving the Department forward with evidence based practices. She has worked closely with the courts and collaborating agencies and represented the Department and County with professionalism and positive demeanor.

Heidi obtained her Master of Social Work degree in 2012 and will be pursuing new challenges in her professional development with undoubtedly the same energy, skill and commitment she has shown during her time with Probation.

OTHER AGENCY INVOLVEMENT/IMPACT
